OUR COMMITMENT TO WINE

While we try to chart new ground with innovative grilled dishes, we see our outlook on wine as quite traditional. In order to promote sustainability, we only stock European wines and showcase many small family producers. We are certain that you will enjoy these carefully selected wines and their exquisite taste. Certainly they have been chosen for their suitability with our grilled meals, but each wine also makes for an outstanding stand-alone drink.

CHEFS CHOICE

Naturally, each vintage wine has its own personality and distinctive features. The following wine list will give you an initial introduction, but do feel free to consult our knowledgeable staff for more details. We have also taken the liberty to mark our own favorites with the «Chef's Choice» icon.

Austria

Grüner Veltliner

Grüner Veltliner is the most famous indigenous grape variety and also the most important white variety in Austria. It produces great wines, from extremely dry to naturally sweet, from young and light to highly mature predicate wines. What remains characteristic is the so-called „Pfefferl“, a flavor note reminiscent of freshly ground pepper. Let yourself be inspired by our enthusiasm for the „Weissgipfler“, as the grape is also called in its homeland, and try one of these wonderful wines.

Orange wines

An orange wine, also commonly referred to as Orange Wine in the German language, is a white wine made like a red wine. The white grapes are fermented with the grape skins (mash), extracting more tannins and color pigments from the grape skins.

With these select drops, we open another door to an exciting new wine world.

The Super Tuscans

Often, beautiful memories come to mind when thinking about the last trip to Tuscany: olive trees, the sea, small towns, food, and certainly the wines. Tuscany is one of the oldest wine regions in Europe, with evidence of winemaking dating back to around 1,000 BC by the Etruscans. In this beautiful region, the Sangiovese grape reigns as the queen, and it is the home of Chianti. However, in the 1980s, the „new“ Tuscan wines emerged. For the first time, grapes other than Sangiovese were used. Initially, these „Super Tuscans“ were classified as table wines since they did not conform to the narrow, tradition-bound legislation. We believe that these wines are a perfect match for grilling over an open wood fire, and that's why we pay special attention to this region. Salute!

Rioja

Bodegas Burgo Viejo

30 years ago, six winemaker families fulfilled their dream of having their own winery and founded Bodegas Burgo Viejo in the Rioja region. The focus is on quality. With great passion, the Tempranillo grapes—the queen of the Rioja region—are nurtured and cared for in the winery's Mediterranean-influenced vineyards. From these grapes, wonderfully dense Riojas with distinct grape and regional characteristics are produced, making them perfect companions for Ampersand grill dishes.

Bulgaria

Katarzyna

In the early 2000s, Christoph Trylinski fulfilled his dream of having his own winery. He named the estate after his daughter, Katarzyna. But that's not enough to be mentioned here; the wine also has to be exceptionally good. With the help of established wine consultants like the Frenchman Michel Roland, wine expertise was gradually developed. Since 2010, the production has also been in Bulgarian hands. Are you ready to try something new? Then we highly recommend the wines from the foot of the Rhodope Mountains, near the border with Greece.
